

COMING TO ISS ROME

Viale Regina Elena, 299 Rome

The main Rome International Airport "Fiumicino" is about 25 km from the centre of Rome. There are various ways to get to centre:

- by train from the airport terminal to the central railway station in Rome "Termini". This train runs every 30 minutes from 5:57 am to 23:27 pm. and the duration of the trip is about half an hour. Train tickets are available at the station (11Euro).
- By taxi (approx 40-50 Euro)

From Rome Termini railway station to the ISS

The Institute address is Viale Regina Elena, 299 (see the Map), the meeting venue is Bovet Room.

- At Termini Railway Station, take the underground (LINE B, direction Rebibbia) and get off at Policlinico stop. To reach the Institute (Istituto Superiore di Sanità - Viale Regina Elena 299) there is the tram, number 19 (direction P.zza dei Gerani) or 3, (direction Stazione Trastevere), which brings you in front of the Institute (approximately three stops). You can also reach the Institute walking, following the enclosed map (10 min approx)
- At Termini Railway Station, catch the bus 310 and get off at bus stop Viale dell'Università.

